Activism in context.

Social scientists studying the activity of activist organizations are faced with an overwhelming amount of possibly biased and out of context source material. The MONA project aims at developing a tool that gathers source material, extracts events and their properties (e.g. actors, locations, timestamps) from these materials, analyzes links between events, and visualizes the results. By doing this, MONA attempts to alleviate the aforementioned problems.

http://semanticweb.cs.vu.nl/mona

Computer Science
Thomas Ploeger
Lora Aroyo

Social Science
Bibiana Armenta
Frank de Bakker
Iina Hellsten