Internet Research Fair
Programme

Monday 29 February
AUC Common Room 18:00-20:00
• Dr. Erinç Salor, Lecturer on New Media, AUC.
  Sum of all Knowledge: Wikipedia and the Encyclopedic Urge

Tuesday 1st March
AUC Common Room 18:00-20:00
• Dr. Evangelos Kanoulas, Assistant Professor of Informatics.
  Socially responsible search engines

Wednesday 2nd March - Internet Study Day
Opening Panel, 13.00-13.45
• Dr. Jovan Kurbalija, Director of DiploFoundation and Head of the Geneva Internet Platform
• Prof. Dr. Murray Pratt, Professor of Contemporary Humanities, UvA and Dean of AUC
• Prof. Dr. Frank van Harmelen, Director of the Network Institute

The Internet and Scientific Research, 14.00-15.45
Moderator: Dr. Erinç Salor
• Dr. Wouter van Atteveldt, Assistant Professor, Department of Communication Science, VU.
  How the internet has changed communication studies

• Prof. Dr. Sally Wyatt, Director of the e-Humanities Research Group, Royal Dutch Academy of Sciences.
  How the internet has changed both the subject and method of the humanities

• Dr. Lora Aroyo, Associate Professor of Computer Science, VU.
  How the internet allows everybody to help out scientists

The Internet and The Role of The Academy, 16.00-18.00
Moderator: Dr. Breanndán Ó Nualláin, lecturer on Computer Programming, AUC.
• Dr. Paul Groth, Director of Disruptive Technologies, Elsevier Labs.
  Beyond the PDF: How the internet has changed (and will change) scientific communication

• Prof. Dr. Peter van den Besselaar, Professor of the Organisation and Dynamics of Science, VU.
  How the internet has changed the way science is done (and studied)

• Dr. Ir. Bart Verheggen, Professor of Climate Change and Communication Studies.
  How the Internet has shaped the public debate about science

• Jona Lendering, Historian of Antiquity and Founder of Livius Onderwijs.
  How the Internet kills debate and how to deal with it

Thursday 3rd March
AUC Common Room 18:00-20:00
• TBA